A PLACE TO FIND YOUR ZEN

Meditation, exercise, wellness. Space to uncover inspiration to move and find what moves you, builds your strength, and establishes your life as one of freedom, rooted in rejuvenation. Here are just a few of the ways you can rejuvenate and relax in your new home along the river's edge.

#01

LEGS UP THE WALL

Starting in corpse pose, bend your arms to place your hands at your lower back. Raise your legs upright and rest them vertically along the nearest wall. Use your hands and the strength from your forearms to support your lower back as you inhale and exhale consistently.

#02

SUPPORTED CHILD'S POSE

Start on all fours and lean back, resting your buttocks onto your heels. Widen your knees, outstretch your arms, and rest your head on a pillow. Release the muscles in your back and breathe deeply.

#03

CAT COW

Begin on all fours. Fill your lungs with air as you arch your back in a dome shape. Release the air fully from your lungs as you lower your spine into a hammock position. Repeat and move with your breath.
