PRICE GUIDELINE

One bedroom units will start at around $570-580k and go up from there. There will be a premium for South facing units which have direct water views, but other than that, the East, West and North sides units which mostly has partial lake view are only slightly higher than the centre building in the previous phase. Lots of value left for our clients to benefit from for years to come, with occupancy currently scheduled for about 5 years from now and excellent deposit structure!
