

KING STREET WEST

INTRODUCTION

The contents of this book will best be understood if read in conjunction with the master KING Toronto book where we delve into the origins of the project, how it fits into the surrounding context and the overarching ambitions that we have for the project. On completion of the master book, we have put together a separate book for each of the four mountains of KING Toronto. Because of the unique characteristics of this project, it does not lend itself well to being summarized or condensed so please bear with us. KING Toronto really is, in every respect, a project that is all about its unique and fine-grain characteristics. The lobbies for each of the four mountains (North, East, West and South) draws from different design inspiration and surprisingly 80% of the homes within the project are unique.

What Moshe Safdie was trying to accomplish with Habitat 67 was to use architecture as a means to create community. We are trying to achieve the same primary goal, but at the same time allowing the individual resident to express their individuality. On one hand, we are embracing the idea of bringing people together into a real community of like-minded residents who amongst other characteristics, share an interest in great architecture and a love for this wonderful neighbourhood. On the other hand, we are recognizing that every individual wants to maintain what makes us unique and to create the circumstances to allow this self expression to blossom.

When we gave Bjarke Ingels and his team at BIG the original design brief, it is these two objectives that were at the core of what we wanted to achieve. Another element of the design brief was the idea of using the modernity of the form, in this case the four mountain peaks, to compliment and celebrate the beautiful historic buildings that we have been blessed with on the site, but never to mimic them. Similarly, the materiality of the glass blocks was chosen to compliment and celebrate the historic brick and beam buildings.

To layer on top of this, the mandate that we gave to our passionate landscape architect, Marc Ryan from Public Work, was to bring as much nature back into the city as possible and to strengthen one of the best characteristics of this neighbourhood of King West – a neighbourhood characterized by diverse streets, laneways and courtyards – its fine grain typology.

The interior architecture for this project, led by Francesca Portesine from BIG, is from the same team that led the design on Vancouver House. It is always advantageous to be able to continue a conversation rather than start one from the beginning. This has allowed us to take the principles of Gesamtkunstwerk that we adopted on Vancouver House and to continue to explore this philosophy here on KING Toronto. I hope that as you flip through the pages of both the master book and this one, that you see our continued effort to adopt the principles of Gesamtkunstwerk, the Total Work of Art, into as much of this project as we can. Similar to Vancouver House, we are just getting started and we will continue to find opportunities throughout the construction process to strengthen this core principle.

Thank you to our partner Allied and all of the willing collaborators that have allowed us to enjoy this journey.

WE ARE NOT A DEVELOPER

We are not motivated by the same things most developers are. Our priorities are different. Development is just one thing that we do. It affords us other – often more interesting – opportunities.

Our aim is to become a company unlike any other. Diversity is at our heart and is the key to how we set ourselves apart.

We embrace our eclectic nature, broadening our interests, actively pursuing interesting collaborations outside property: art, culture, technology, sustainability, infrastructure, etc.

We very publicly define ourselves through the things we do. Always allying ourselves with those who share our values.

We explain to the world who we are through the things we do.

Westbank goes beyond just creating buildings; we acknowledge the surroundings and the existing community and create a new addition to the space and community that improves and gives back. Ultimately, we aim to create a positive impact on how people live today.

We see the opportunity to claim this holistic approach to development as the essence of our brand and to call it out. Just like Bauhaus created rules and influenced Modernism, Westbank could influence where culture is today and goes tomorrow.

CULTURE IS OUR CURRENCY

We are a culture company.

Everything we do serves to propagate culture.

We define our philosophy through collaboration and association.

We invite unique and interesting collaboration between cultural pioneers, showcasing their work, using it to inform and influence our projects.

We take on the role of patron of culture, and distribute it globally.

In doing so, we define ourselves as more than just a real estate company, or a property development company – we become a bank that deals exclusively in cultural transactions, a global force for the exposition and propagation of cultural movements.

LEGACY

The relentless pursuit of perfection. This is the one thing that informs everything we do. Whatever sector we are working in. It is this focus that will create our legacy. Everything we build and do has to be the best expression of us.

It could be about making a city more beautiful. Creating cleaner energy to power that city. Better working practises for those that work for and with us, or giving an artist a new audience, opening people's eyes to something they were previously unaware of. Before you embark on any project, and at every point during it – always ask yourself: will what we leave behind be better than what went before?

Then go make it. And never give up.

INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE

KING Toronto's interiors have been developed in response to the historical nature of the nearby buildings and of the neighbourhood itself. We saw an opportunity to revisit the industrial aesthetic and heritage of historic Toronto and to accentuate it with refined European influences and touches.

Toronto is Canada's largest city – its bustling financial capital and our project – will be an island in this dynamic environment: the new community flowing through the spaces will find calmness and serenity while enjoining the bright, green and permeable outdoor/indoor spaces.

In the same way the architecture gently embraces and enhances the existing buildings, framing them in a cascade of white translucent pixels, the interiors frame the individual experience, with comforting, natural materials and lush vegetation.

From the public areas to the private spaces, we offer a journey through a newly built geological formation: entering through a grand fissure – the atrium; resting/enjoying life in the forest – the courtyards and lobbies; moving through hidden galleries – the corridors; and, finally, reaching the top of the mountain, where a glistening 'glacier' is waiting to be admired and where each individual home provides a place to settle down and recharge.

The public spaces are conceived as an extension of the residences with lounge areas resembling a living room: welcoming and comfortable, inviting you to stop, wait, read or chat with friends. The selection of furniture and accessories was calculated to bring out the inherent qualities of the living spaces as gathering places.

The refined, industrial aesthetic can be felt in both public and private spaces: while it is a defining element, clearly visible in the former, it is subtler and focused more on the details in the latter.

The materials used in the public areas are mainly aged/blackened metals, corrugated concrete, textured glass in different scales and lush vegetation. Within the residences, service areas such as bathrooms and kitchen are grouped together to form an anchoring block. Clad in a choice of three different materials, this solid, gravitational element forms a counterpoint to the translucency and luminosity of the glass-block façade. The furniture selections for the residences was made in collaboration with B&B Italia and Maxalto. Through their range of products, we combined timeless Italian design with contemporary innovation. The accessories for homes, as well as furniture for public spaces, are selected predominantly from Scandinavian inspiration, which highlight our design sensibility through the use of light, warm materials and a muted color palette.

When developing interiors, BIG always takes a holistic approach to design, from large scale to small scale, the design intent is carried through to create a complete vision. As a result, we were able to design several custom products, ranging from the suite entry doors, terrazzo floor tiles, wood parquet and kitchens, to a piano for the east atrium.

MIELE: 115 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

1899
In Herzebrock, Germany, Carl Miele (the technician) and Reinhard Zinkann (the salesman), together with 11 employees, four lathes and a drill, found a company to manufacture milk centrifuges and butter churns.

1900
Just one year after the company's inception, milk centrifuges and butter churns are joined on the market by the first Miele washing machine, the "Meteor".

1904
Miele develops its first power-driven washing machine. An "outboard" electric motor supplies the power to move the agitator while a drive belt achieves silent operation, low energy consumption and provides years of service.

1908
Miele moves from Herzebrock to a new factory in Gütersloh. Mr. Miele and Mr. Zinkann are convinced that in order to maintain their quality standards over the long-term, the Miele company must produce all parts and components 'inhouse'.

1910
Miele develops a mechanical laundry wringer that can be driven by hand or run by an electric motor.

1913
Models in full bloom – Forever More, Forever Better. More than 20 new variants of seven basic models of Miele wooden tub washing machines enter the market, expanding the product range to 50.

1914
An electric plug-in for the washing machine changes everything! A builtin electric motor washing machine is introduced in the legendary Miele washing machine 'Number 50m', described at the time as "the role-model in electric washing machines". All future innovations are based on this design.

1924
Miele introduces a bicycle to the market at a new factory in Bielefeld.

1925
The metal drum replaces the wooden tub in Miele washing machines Miele secures its place as the largest washing machine manufacturer in Germany.

1926
Miele introduces milking machines.

1927
The first Miele vacuum cleaner arrives; first the basic "K" model, soon followed by the 'Melior'.

1929
Europe's first electric dishwasher is introduced by Miele.

1932
The first motorized bicycle model is developed and marketed as "a Miele bicycle with balloon tires powered by a Sachs motor".

1934
Miele introduces a retirement pension fund for its employees, including disability pensions and widow benefits.

1935
The second generation, Carl Miele Jr. and Kurt-Christian Zinkann begin working for Miele, now one of the largest companies in its sector in Germany, with over 2000 employees.

1937
First Miele electric spin dryer with centrifugal force design is developed for private households.

1938
Carl Miele dies on Christmas Eve, six months before his 70th birthday. Director C.H. Walkenhorst: "The name Carl Miele should always be a name that inspires us to continue to work in his spirit. We will honour his name. His work shall continue."

1939
On July 14, co-founder Reinhard Zinkann dies at the age of 70. Director Walkenhorst: "We will continue to thank him, even beyond the grave, for what he was to us and this firm that he founded, through his work, through his charity, through his goodness and understanding." Following the deaths of the two founders, their sons Carl Miele Jr. and Kurt Christian Zinkann take the helm.

1944
Air raids destroy production facilities at the Gütersloh plant; Miele's production program has now been reduced to handcarts and ladders.

1945
War is over and rebuilding of the Gütersloh factory begins. In addition, Miele decides to build workers' accommodation, and assists employees in the re-building of their own homes.

1947
Due to a shortage of metals, the woodentub washing machine returns. By year's end, more than 8,000 units have been produced.

1949
Miele's 50th birthday and Miele rewards all employees with a handsome cash bonus, an increase to the employees' pension and retirement funds. Miele factories have been re-built and full production begins in earnest with a workforce of 2500.

1952
Miele develops the space-saving rapid washing 'Machine 75'. The machine automatically fills with cold water through a hose attached to a stopcock – and the water is heated internally.

1953
Miele washing 'Machine 307' is introduced with a horizontal-axis drum with an electric boiler featuring gentle treatment of laundry, effective and energy-saving operation and long life reflecting the firm's high quality standards.

1954
No need to pedal! The Miele motorbike model is the widely known '98' with a Sachs motor. The firm is now the largest manufacturer of washing machines, and the second largest manufacturer of twowheel bicycles and motorbikes.

1956
The Miele automatic 'Number 702' washing machine sets the future of clothes washing and care. The Gütersloh factory is expanded to include manufacture of 18,000 individual parts and components in-house for all Miele products.

1958
The introduction of the Miele electric tumble dryer.

1959
Miele automatic washing machines travel around the world – keeping clothing clean on passenger liners, freight ships, training and research ships, and tankers.

1960
Miele makes a historic decision: discontinuing bicycle and motorbike production at the Bielefeld factory, with Miele's future directed to kitchen and domestic appliances. The fully automatic 'Number G-10' dishwasher is introduced.

1965
Miele opens a fifth factory in Lehrte to satisfy the production demands for its products.

1968
Design innovations, advances in electronic control systems and an expanding group of products directed toward the domestic market continue to separate the Miele brand. Miele's workforce tops 9,000 employees in Germany.

1969
Miele expands its domestic kitchen focus and begins design and production of cooking appliances. The 250,000th dishwasher rolled-off the assembly lines at Bielefeld.

1970
With advances in production automation and electronics and the 'Immer Besser' standards, Miele transitions to automation in production, warehousing, and distribution.

1975
Miele introduces a full line of leadingedge built-in appliances including cookers, ovens, dishwashers, refrigerators, and freezers.

1987
The first Miele Museum in Gütersloh, Germany includes one of the legendary Miele K1 cars dating back to 1913, discovered in Norway.

1988
Since 1980, water consumption for Miele dishwashers has decreased by 40 percent and energy consumption has fallen by 30 percent.

1992
Miele increases its investment in employee training to further the 'Immer Besser' philosophy.

1998
Miele product line expands: steam ovens, built-in coffee machines, hood fans, gas and electric cooktops, induction cooktops, and warming drawers.

1999
100 years of Miele and 'Forever Better'! Miele is the 'most valued brand' in German and European electronic retail markets. Miele's international expansion continues with subsidiaries in more than 40 countries.

2000
Miele is awarded the German Marketing Prize – the highest honour for excellence. Water and energy consumption by Miele appliances continues to be reduced – by about 70 percent overall since 1980.

2005
Miele introduces 'MasterCool' refrigeration and wine storage, establishing a new standard refrigeration for the domestic market.

2014
Miele introduces 'Generation 6000'. These technically advanced products set new performance and aesthetic standards for premium appliances worldwide.

The materiality of the bathrooms is inspired by the concept of anchoring the service spaces within the homes. There will be 2 different colour schemes for the bathrooms, light and dark. The light scheme features matte white tile with contrasting matte black plumbing fixtures and a blush or light grey ceramic vanity and sink. The dark scheme features dark grey tile with contrasting matte black plumbing fixtures and a teal ceramic vanity and sink. These elements are further complimented by the lighter tones of the custom terrazzo flooring and custom white frosted pendant light fixtures.

GESAMTKUNTSWERK: A TOTAL WORK OF ART

A TOTAL WORK OF ART

Every real estate project is a collaboration, but the best projects come off like a finely choreographed dance, with every contributor showing up at just the right moment and adding just the right touch. We depend so heavily on the imagination of the architects, the reliability of the engineers, the efficiency of the construction managers and the expertise and commitment of every individual worker. KING Toronto offered a strong reminder that, with a partner like Allied, we all benefit, as well, from the vision and ambition of an excellent city builder.

These learning experiences are endless, and in more than 30 years, Westbank has been tutored by some of the best architects and artists in the world, as well as by brilliant partners and subject area experts of every kind. In the process, we have added capacity and complexity to what we can achieve, always raising our level of ambition. We also have gathered an expanding vocabulary that explains and inspires what we do, and the way we do it.

GESAMTKUNSTWERK

One of the words in that new vocabulary was the German Gesamtkunstwerk: it was coined by a German philosopher in the 1820s and it translates as “total work of art.” We came across Gesamtkunstwerk while working with architect Bjarke Ingels on our first project together, his remarkable design of Vancouver House, and the word fit perfectly. It illuminated his intention to create an unexpected and completely elegant high-rise form, married to a ground plane that melds so well with its surroundings that it is destined to transform the entire neighbourhood. In an extremely challenging property, this was a seamless and coherent solution, a total work of art.

LAYERING

We were introduced to a second concept while we were working with the great Japanese architect Kengo Kuma on a Vancouver project on Alberni Street. Kuma is deeply thoughtful in his application of layering, which in Japanese translates as tsumikasane, meaning “to heap on top of.” Let there be no misunderstanding, though, that Kuma-san throws anything down in “heaps.” Rather, he takes delight in considering every element, every increment of space or additional piece of material to assure that they all fold together into an optimally realized whole.

Taking these concepts together – and applying them to the development not just of buildings but of whole new neighbourhoods, it becomes clear that a total work of art cannot be a stark monolith; rather, it must be a triumph of complementary components – of layers. That was the motivation for our design and our approach to KING Toronto. Instead of an indifferent collection of buildings, Ingels and his team at BIG have delivered an urban mountain range in glass and greenery. Neither does this new form seek to upstage or overwhelm the heritage buildings on site. On the contrary, BIG’s pixelated landscape embraces and complements the existing buildings, and the neighbouring streetscape, as well.

As you turn the pages of this book and the master KING Toronto book – ultimately, as you move through the fully realized atrium, lobbies, homes and terraces of this building – you will surely see an intricately, infinitely layered collaboration.

– Ian Gillespie

BIG X B&B ITALIA

It was Bjarke Ingels Group (BIG) who first introduced us to the word and philosophy of 'Gesamtkunstwerk'. Translating into 'a total work of art', this is the main principle and guiding philosophy for all of our projects, current and future.

To achieve a design that reflects the beautiful aesthetic of the exterior and interior architecture at KING Toronto, BIG has collaborated with B&B Italia to select customized furniture pieces and packages for each of the homes.

For the West Mountain, we have also chosen to include the curated furniture packages with the purchase of the studio and one bedroom homes. This allows the homes to achieve a 'total work of art' design that reflects and realizes the design intentions and meticulous detailing of KING Toronto.

COURTYARD AND PUBLIC REALM

Applying the “Total Work of Art” philosophy to the courtyard and public realm, KING Toronto will be a diverse and lively zone for living and shopping with new retail, hospitality, workspace and cultural offerings. This year-round destination will feature restaurants and cafes, one-of-a-kind shops and services, street celebrations and craft & farmers markets.

- KING Toronto will offer approximately 180,000 sf of Retail Space
- KING Toronto will offer approximately 60,000 sf of Office / Workspace

PUBLIC ART

Until now, we have never had a canvas quite like KING Toronto, including a grand inner courtyard that will be transformed by one of the most substantial and beautiful public art works yet to grace the streets – or plazas – of Toronto. BIG have suggested the artistic possibilities of suspending mirrored spheres that would take advantage of the infinite changes of light in a partially enclosed space, creating focal points for residents looking in from all angles. As part of the City of Toronto’s Public Art program, we will invite three or four artists to compete in a juried process and we are confident that we will be able to attract world-class talent and that their proposals will fulfill our own ambitions and those of the people of Toronto.
